

Build a web application using Node-RED, Configure the Node-RED and create APIs for communicating with mobile application and web application

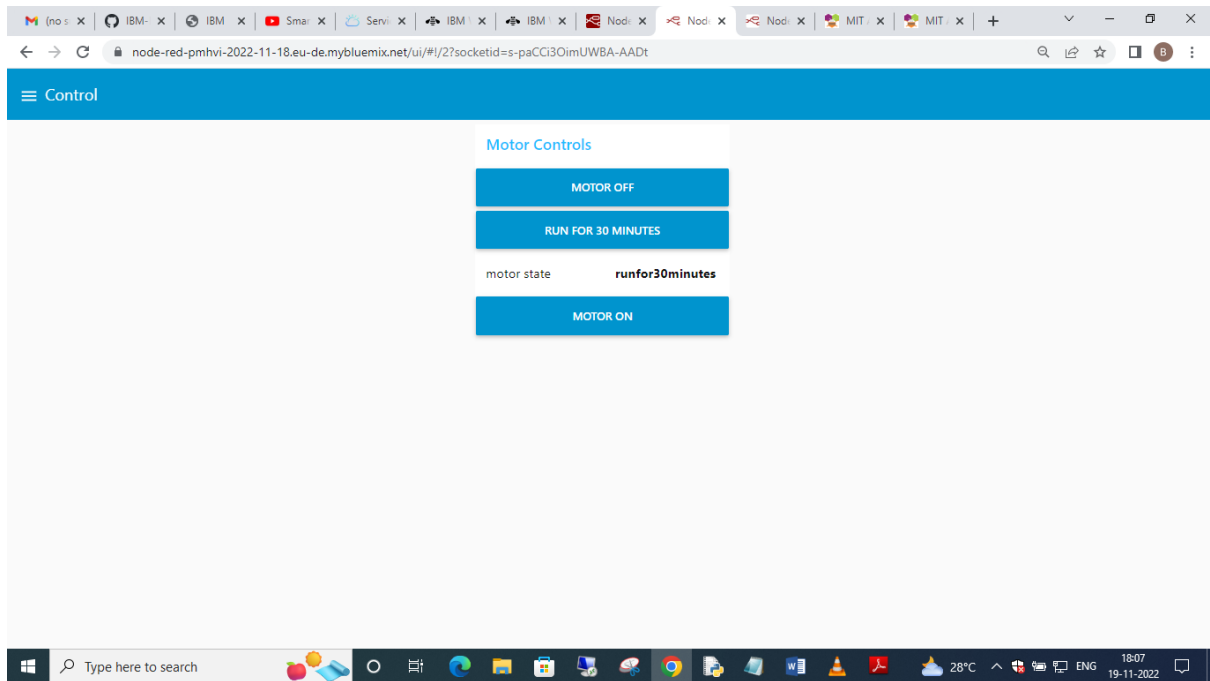

You should need dashboard nodes to be installed to build a dashboard.

This page will show the measured value of the simulator

This page is for general weather forecasting data

This page is for controlling the motor